

DOC: DIGITAL ONLINE COMMUNITY
A service of the Flint River Regional Library System.
INFORMATION PROVIDER CONTRACT - DRAFT

Before putting any information on DOC: Digital Online Community (DOC), information providers are required to sign this contract indicating that they have read, understand and will comply with the Acceptable Use Policy.

DOC: Digital Online Community
Flint River Regional Library System
800 Memorial Drive
Griffin, Georgia 30223

This contract is in accordance with broader DOC policy found at <http://doc.frrls.net/policies/acceptableuse.htm>. These policies are intended to protect DOC: Digital Online Community and Flint River Regional Library System from liability for information created by other organizations/individuals and stored on the DOC server.

PAGE STANDARDS

Each page of information provided on DOC's server must identify the information provider and appropriate contact information. In addition, the organization home (main) page must follow the standards found established by DOC: Digital Online Community and Flint River Regional Library System.

COMMERCIAL INFORMATION

Commercial information is not permitted on the DOC. Commercial information is defined as that directly related to "for profit" enterprises. However, pages that reside on the DOC server may include "links" to commercial information and businesses whose pages reside on other servers. In addition, DOC encourages educational information, which may be of assistance to area businesses (i.e. tax assistance, training and management resources etc.)

OBSCENITY

Any material that is deemed obscene under local, state, or federal law shall not be posted on DOC.

LIBEL, HATE MESSAGES, AND VIOLENCE

Information Providers shall not post libelous material, hate messages, or material that incites or advocates violence.

EDITORIAL RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Information Provider assumes all editorial rights and responsibilities. In the case where an information provider contracts with an outside web developer or for page development assistance, the information provider still assumes all responsibility for the content of all their pages posted on DOC. In the case that an information provider runs any software or applications on the DOC server, again, responsibility remains with the information provider.

COPYRIGHT LAWS

Information providers agree to comply with current state and federal copyright laws. Copyrighted information shall not be posted on DOC without the permission of the copyright holders. Submission of content to DOC is done at the information provider's risk. The information provider, not DOC, is liable for all damages resulting from any infringement of copyrights or any other harms. It is the information provider's responsibility to ensure accuracy and appropriate content. The information provider shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless DOC and the Flint River Regional Library System in all cases arising out of any defamatory or illegal, or allegedly defamatory or allegedly illegal material placed in the DOC server.

NON-COMPLIANCE

If an information provider does not comply (in the opinion of the DOC Coordinator or of the Executive Director of Flint River Regional Library System) with the above terms, their information may be removed without notice. The provider may appeal their case to the Executive Director of Flint River Regional Library System or a designated staff member.

TIMELY AND ACCURATE INFORMATION

The information provider is responsible for maintaining the accuracy and timeliness of information. The information provider will conduct periodic reviews of their information on DOC and adjust the content to maintain continued relevance, accuracy, and accessibility. Under no circumstances will DOC be liable for any loss or damage caused by a user's reliance on information obtained on the DOC server.
